

WEDDING PLANNING GUIDE

Planning for your wedding reception should be easy and hassle-free. Here are a few early details that will help us create a custom-designed menu that is on track with your vision of this special day.

Today's Date _____

The Bride _____ Phone/Email _____

The Groom _____ Phone/Email _____

The Date _____ Time of Day _____

The Guests

Local _____ Out of the Area _____

How many guests will help you celebrate _____ How many children under 10 _____

The Venue

Wedding Ceremony _____ Reception _____

The Style (what the groom is wearing is a big clue)

Formal (groom in tux) _____ Semi-Formal (groom in suit) _____ Casual (Creative attire) _____

Priorities (from #1 to #4; what matters most)

Beautiful—from the bride to the flowers _____ Wonderful conversations _____

Awesome food _____ Other things that matter _____

The Style of Food Service

Formal (plated served meal) _____ Casual (buffet) _____ Interactive (grazing station) _____

The Food

Elegant/Upscale _____ Familiar/Plentiful _____ Brunch _____

Luncheon _____ Hors d'Oeuvres _____ Just Desserts _____ More _____

The Beverages

Champagne toast _____ Hosted Bar Wine/Beer _____ Hosted Full Service Bar _____

Cash Bar _____ We prefer to have no alcohol served but prefer: _____

The Budget (which one are you)

Budget Conscious _____ Control costs but flexible _____

Value driven—high value for dollars spent _____ Big blowout bash _____

